

Six Arrested in Lliber Housing Fraud

AULN 15/12/2009

On Sunday 15th December Guardia Civil officers arrested six people, one of them British, all linked to construction companies involved in the illegal building of some 300 homes in Lliber, Alicante Province. The six are accused of fraud and planning related crimes, and are linked to an ongoing investigation into the activities of the former PP Mayor and Town Architect during the period 1999-2003.
