

Urban planning conference to sidestep talk on corruption scandals
Albox symposium on 'the model city' just "a talking shop", according to expat association

By Richard Torné, Costa Almeria News, 27th November 2009

URBAN planners and politicians will be holding a three-day conference on creating 'the model city' in Albox amid the latest backdrop of corruption scandals in Almería.

Up to five official bodies, including the Junta de Andalucía, Albox council and the local businessmen's association, AEPA, will take part in the fifth symposium on urban planning in the Almanzora valley, starting today, November 27.

More...