Condor Denounces 'trickery'

EuroWeekly News 10-16th January

The ecologist group Condor have accused the City Hall of Almeria of using "tricks to build where they want" Condor publicly denounced the City Hall, saying that councillors are mocking the residents of the region, purely for the reason of filling the municipal chests and the pockets of politicians with money. Condor said that this may well prove to be good for the City Hall, but that the residents suffer through "disorderly excessive growth without basic services".
