

Reasons to Register on the Padrón

AUAN, 29th August 2009

The British Embassy is encouraging foreign residents to register on the Padrón (a register of all the people living in a town). All residents in Spain are required by law to do so and it brings benefits such as voting rights and better public services.

Read more HERE

It's also important for reasons that may not immediately be obvious. Eg. EXPATS whose property was damaged in last month's fire in Turre may not receive government compensation because they are not registered on the padrón.

Read more HERE

