Judge David Villagr a of Huerca Overa Court N  2 has allowed charges to be placed against the Mayor of Zurgena, C ndido Trabal n, his second in command Manuel Tijeras, and 23 other people.

It has been 15 months since Guardia Civil officers swooped on the sleepy little town of Zurgena, arresting the mayor and several other people. During the operation they closed the town hall and the offices of several promoters in the area, seizing computers and documents. The case has been ongoing, and yesterday evening the investigating Judge announced the results.
